Danger Signals

More than half the victims of consumption do not know they have it. Here is a list of symptoms by which consumption can certainly be detected—
 Cough, one or two slight efforts on rising, occurring during the day and frequently during the night.
 Thinness of the chest.
 Quick pulse, especially noticeable in the evening and after a full meal.
 Chills in the evening, followed by slight fever.
 Perspiration toward morning and "pale face and languid in the morning."
 Loss of vitality.
 If you have these symptoms, or any of them, do not delay. There are many preparations which claim to cure, but Dr. Rorer's English Remedy for Consumption has the highest endorsement, and has stood the test of years. It will arrest consumption in its earlier stages, and drive away the poison named. It is manufactured by Dr. J. C. Rorer, Medicine Co., 16 and 18 Canal St., New York, and sold by all reputable druggists.

Don't Stop Tobacco.
 HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.
 The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is too severe a shock to the system, as tobacco to an inveterate user becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. "Haco-Curo" is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit, in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure. It is purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want while taking "Haco-Curo." It will notify you when to stop. We give a written guarantee to cure permanently "any cure with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest." "Haco-Curo" is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke. Cured by Haco-Curo and gained thirty pounds.
 From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented.
 Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark. Jan. 28, 95.
 Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.—Gentlemen: For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and liver disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Cough Cure," "Double Chloride Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Haco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and conditions.
 Yours respectfully, P. H. MAUNY.

A Converted Democrat.
 The doors of the Republican church are now thrown wide open to all "taffs for revenue only." "Free silver 16 to 1" Democrats who can see the error of their way and want to do better in the future.
 L. B. Wright, of Booneville, who in 1893 was one of the editors and publishers of the Booneville Democrat, and who in 1893 was elected delegate to the convention that nominated Dick Bland for Congress, wrote a letter April 2, which appeared in the Booneville Democrat of last week that should be read by every qualified voter in Missouri. Among other things Mr. Wright says:
 "I have learned much and have reasoned from effect to cause.
 "I am not a Democrat to-day because I am convinced that the tariff for revenue only is a snare and delusion. I am not a Democrat to-day because I believe that the success of those who favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, would plunge this country into financial ruin. I am not a Democrat to-day because I do not believe in substituting an interest-bearing obligation in order that the money sharks of Wall Street may fill their coffers with the money of the people. I am not a Democrat to-day because I do not believe in issuing bonds to meet the deficits in current expenditures caused by the abominable Wilson-Gorman tariff measure.
 "I am a Republican to-day because I believe protection to American industries and to American wage earners. I am a Republican to-day because I believe in a stable currency—in a financial system where the paper dollar and the silver dollar are as good as the gold dollar, and where the fifty-cent repudiation finds no place. I am a Republican to-day because I do not believe in increasing the already heavy burden borne by our people by the addition of hundreds of millions of interest-bearing bonds. I am a Republican to-day because the Republican party in its thirty years of power has never yet steered the credit of the country upon the shoals of destruction but has ever held to a policy of gradual reduction in the public debt and a steady increase of financial prosperity.
 "These are but few of the many important reasons why I am a Republican to-day. I might have referred to an old adage about people changing their minds, but I forbear. My position is fully stated and I rest on my arms.
 L. B. WRIGHT.

This testimonial is unsolicited and for the benefit of humanity. My daughter has been subject to severe colds and croup and often taken with violent coughing spells at night. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is the only preparation I have found that will relieve her. I think it is as necessary in the household as a life preserver on a steamboat.

The Pickler Pension Bill.
 The Pickler pension bill, passed by the House, will not fail to receive the approval of the country. Its general purpose is to undo as far as possible the evil results of the Democratic pension policy and to protect the soldiers against further wrongs in the adjustment of their claims under the laws enacted for their benefit. The fact is well known that the present Administration has persistently conducted the pension system in an untoward spirit toward those who fought the battles that saved the Union. Instead of striving to promote the rapid and helpful distribution of pension funds to those having just and fair rights in that relation, it has used every expedient to delay and defeat such payments, thus preventing the money from reaching those to whom it belonged and who stood in sore need of assistance. Thousands of names have been dropped from the pension rolls in an arbitrary and surreptitious way; and thousands of applications have been rejected on frivolous pretexts and with offensive insinuations of dishonesty on the part of the applicants.

It is the principal object of the Pickler bill to put a stop to this systematic betrayal of a great and sacred trust. The interests of the soldiers represent a sentiment of National gratitude and generosity which should not be hindered in its appointed and practical operation by political prejudice and animosity. It is the desire of the people that disabled and dependent veterans shall have reasonable succor, and that the process of obtaining the money appropriated for this purpose shall be made as easy and expeditious as possible, consistent with the necessity of guarding against mistake and deception.

The Pickler bill is not intended to dispense with any proper precaution in the investigation of claims or the interpretation of the laws, but only to remove obstructions in the form of abuses of authority to serve to cheat the soldiers out of their rights. It provides in a general way for the simplification of pension office methods, and for the restriction of official discretion in the rejection of claims for frivolous and insufficient reasons.

Such legislation is demanded for the legitimate enforcement of the will of the people with regard to the debt which they owe to the men whose valor preserved the Government and it is to be hoped, therefore, that the Senate will pass the Pickler bill at an early date. (Clobe-Democrat.)

The Reason of It.
 Sound money Kentucky Democrats are evidently not in control of their party in this State and are not likely to be. The reason is that they have neither the courage, confidence nor consistency of men of conviction.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Professing opposition to a financial policy which would bring the greatest evils upon the country, they nevertheless support a candidate for Senator pledged to carry out that policy rather than a Republican known to be pledged to defeat it. Ex-Governor Buckner, one of the most prominent Democrats masquerading as a sound money man, not only recommended this policy, but took an active personal interest in defeating the re-election of a sound money man to the State Senate, and electing in his stead a man of the most pronounced tree-silver coinage views. As long as Democrats in Kentucky and elsewhere, prefer to crucify their opinions for the benefit of those who organize the ignorant and dictate the action of the party, just so long will they be at the mercy of this element, their counsels unheeded and their party worthy the contempt it receives. (Louisville Commercial.)

A Valuable Prescription.
 Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehlig, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a headache which never left her and felt tired and weary but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. HENDERHOOK.
 The recent rains have much improved vegetation of all kinds and has enlivened the spirits of our farmers. The most of them are done planting corn and several done setting tobacco.

Mrs. A. C. Ellis, of this neighborhood, and Mrs. Combes, from above town will leave about the 10th of next month to visit relatives in Denver, Col. They will be gone about one month.

Miss Eva Berryman, of near Beaver Dam, will make her future home with her uncle, Mr. A. C. Ellis. Miss Berryman is polite, intelligent and quite handsome and we give her a hearty welcome among us.

Mr. Wood Tinsley has returned from Somerset, Ky., where he had gone to attend the State Encampment as a delegate from the Hartford G. A. R. Post. Wood is a genial fellow and his many friends are glad to know that he had a pleasant trip.

Mr. Virge Stevens, a Kinderhook boy, and Miss Dollie French, of Buford, were quietly married at the home of the bride Sunday May 17th. Rev. Hicks officiating. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the home of the groom, where a bounteous and well prepared dinner awaited them. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Rev. Cain, pastor of the No Creek M. E. Church, recently visited his parents in Campbell county, Ky., and while there visited the county Jail and saw and talked with the murderers of Pearl Bryan, Jackson and Walling.
 Decoration of soldiers graves, on the 30th of this month will be observed by the G. A. R. at the Alexander burying ground, in this neighborhood. The Mt. Hermon singing class, under the leadership of Prof. James Ellis are preparing to furnish music for that occasion. This fact alone insures the occasion a success.

Miss Ernie Anderson one of our most popular young ladies, is visiting her uncle, Mr. James L. Anderson, of Owensboro.

Some of our young men are considerably agitated over the fact that they had a dark lantern flashed in their faces one night recently. The report goes that on the Sunday night of the dedication of Victory Church, Mr. J. W. Stevens, Jr., who had attended the dedication and who was on his way home had a dark lantern flashed in his face a little after dark on the hill near Mr. T. C. Stratton's, and a little later Mr. Libburn Newcomb, who was in Mr. Ed Bennetts yard had a dark lantern flashed in his face. Since then nothing has been heard of the matter.

Messrs. J. F. T. Ward and Jasper Patton delivered a load of tobacco to Owensboro last week.
 The many friends here and at Mt. Hermon, of Rev. Royster, the Evangelist, are considerably agitated over the report that he had been refused the use of the pulpit of the Hartford Methodist Church by our Rev. Chandler, the pastor in charge. How a man claiming to be called of God can religiously refuse the use of his pulpit to a brother Methodist preacher is a little further down the line of Christianity than we have been. Those who have heard Rev. Chandler's sermons say they smack more of quarterly dues and fried chicken than of Christ and Him crucified. On the other hand it is truthfully said that the Rev. Royster is laboring in the Masters Vineyard with an unselfish aim.

The Sunday School at Washington will observe the second Sunday in June as Children's Day. They are anticipating an interesting time on that day as the schools at Alexander, Mt. Hermon and Beulah are preparing to render programs on that occasion.

Homer Hampton's baby, on No Creek has the measles and there is a fair chance for an epidemic of the disease in this and adjoining neighborhoods.

The death of Miss Tessie Tichenor which occurred Tuesday morning week at 10 o'clock is very much regretted in this community.

CONGRESSMAN LEWIS.
 Congressman Jno. W. Lewis who has recently spent several days in his district visited the sentiments not only of his districts but of the entire State, when he said to a Washington reporter, "Kentucky Republicans are aglow with enthusiasm for McKinley." I never saw such enthusiasm for any as exists for him, and is by no means confined to the Republicans. He will carry the State by a heavy majority, as I take it for granted he will be the party nominee. My own district believes in McKinley thoroughly for the people want protection for their wool and lumber, and a good tax on sugar, which business affords a strong demand for the high grade mules raised in the Blue Grass country. When the Southern planters get a fair price for sugar they are able to pay top figures for Kentucky mules, which have declined in value terribly since the enactment of the Goran-Wilson tariff. The cry McKinley and prosperity is heard everywhere, and it makes the Ohio man an invincible candidate."

ST. PLEASANT.

Sam Small has this to say on newspaper sensations: "I have been a newspaper man twelve years, and if I wanted to get rights square judgement I'd rather go into a newspaper office than a court of justice. No man whose life is true, pure and just is afraid of all the newspaper presses in America. They are the best detective force in the country to-day. They have punctured more shams, and so far as I am concerned I say 'take the bridle off and let 'em go. The only ones that will be hurt will be the shams and frauds. And if you think the newspapers print too much of a sensational kind, don't you read it, and they will quit printing it. The papers need to be reformed, but the people have got to reform first. Newspapers are printed for money and to suit their patrons. If you don't think they are run on a high moral platform like Mr. Barnum's circus, why, just reform yourself and the paper will follow suit."

Republican Ticket.

ELECTION NOV. 3, 1896.

For Congress,
HON. JNO. W. LEWIS.

The country has been killed by free trade and now the Democrats propose to bury it with free silver.

KENTUCKY Democrats celebrated Decoration Day by pulling wool. Patriotism, patriotism, where art thou?

REV. MARTIN D. HARDIN son of P. Wat Hardin, and Miss Julia Stevenson, daughter of Vice President Stevenson, were married in Washington Wednesday evening.

The Republican Convention will undoubtedly declare for sound money and against the free coinage of silver and will declare for Protection to American industries and the American people.

CLEVELAND might have strengthened his veto of the River and Harbor Bill by stating the notorious fact that Democratic rule had reduced the revenue to a point where nothing was left for public improvement.

The time honored custom of instructing all other good Democrats of Ohio county to attend the State Convention was dispensed with last Saturday and only a selected few were chosen. The cut and dried resolutions caused a disturbance.

The long, continued rains have placed the farmers in a bad condition with their crops. Large tracks of land have been so wet they could not be planted and on other tracks the crops have become yellow. A short crop would increase the price, but the benefits would not be evenly distributed. There is considerable of last year's crop on hand and this would bring an increased price, but farmers who have not been able to hold their crops would be the loser.

No man in the halls of the present Congress has had more success in working for his constituents than has the Hon. John W. Lewis, who represents the 4th Congressional District. Mr. Lewis is always at his post of duty, ready and willing to serve his people, and the people have recognized the fact and will return him to Congress this fall by a larger majority than in 1894. Republicans must begin to organize throughout the district and be ready for the coming fight.

SNEAKED OUT.

These are the words used by the Courier-Journal to characterize the action of the Republicans in the Senate regarding the investigation of the bond issue.

It is rather difficult for people, other than the Courier-Journal people, to see how and where the Republicans have "sneaked out" of any responsibility they should assume in that matter.

Is not the bond issue wholly a Democratic affair? Were not the Senators most active in asking an investigation, all prominent Democrats? Is not the majority of the committee appointed to make the investigation, composed of Democrats, and prominent Democrats at that? Certainly so. These are facts well known to all who are conversant with public affairs. Why then should Republicans conduct this investigation? They had a right to demand this investigation, but it is eminently fitting that the party responsible for the bond issue, should investigate the same.

Senators Vest, Walcott and Harris who are members of this committee are prominent Democrats.

They surely would not make a report concerning the matter that would injure the party. But as they are conservative and honest men they will see that the facts are reported and the facts are all the people want.

The objection of the Courier-Journal to the action of the Republicans arises from the sole reason that it wants to see Republicans get mixed up in Democratic affairs. Having refused to do so the Courier thinks Republicans are shirking responsibility. This little wail of the Courier is all clap trap.

Republicans are not so simple as to be used as a cat's paw for Democrats to pull their chestnuts out of the fire. Oh no! Republicans are not going around helping Democrats out of the holes in which they find themselves.

Therefore our Democratic brethren can proceed with their little cat fight over the bond issue. Republicans will merely set on the fence and witness the proceedings.

MONDAY's Courier-Journal gives up the ghost and has the following to say regarding Saturday's Conventions:

"Saturday's work, for one thing, makes Kentucky Republican for years. Before Saturday Bradleyism was dead. But Saturday made it possible for any Republican to carry Kentucky over any party which binds itself to the corpse of free silverism."

This week marks a great era in the Democratic party. The bosses of the party are in session at Lexington and from the reports received from there up to yesterday evening they are having a high old time. The tree silver element is very much in the lead and the sound money men cannot be heard on any occasion. With Bronston, Goebel, Blackburn & Co. in the lead the Democratic party finds itself in the middle of a very bad fix. The report of the Committee on Resolutions will favor Blackburn for President and Ellis, Rhea, Hardin & Co., for Delegates at Large to the National Convention. Altogether it is a howling mob that has possession of Lexington this week.

It becomes more certain every day that the free silver advocates will have a majority of the Delegates at the Chicago Convention and will make their platform accordingly, but when it comes to the nomination of a candidate for President and Vice President they will be confronted with the two-thirds rule, which is one of the long cherished traditions of the Democratic party. Therein lies the only hope of the sound money men. They can, if they muster more than one-third of the Delegates, force the free silver men to nominate a sound money man, or prevent any nomination. This course is being urged by some of the sound money organs in preference to bolting. Both sides will fight to a finish and neither has any inclination to give in to the other, so Republicans are watching them fight.

A Good Man's Opportunity.

When Hon. John W. Yerkes arises in the Republican convention at St. Louis to nominate Gov. W. O. Bradley for President he can catch the ear and heart of the convention by coming out boldly and eloquently for the sound money platform on which Bradley was elected Governor of Kentucky. Mr. Yerkes is one of the most attractive speakers in the country, and he will have the opportunity of his life at St. Louis. The fortunes of the Republican party depend on what is done there, and a speech from Kentucky standing up with such eloquence as Mr. Yerkes has at his command for a plain, explicit and unequivocal declaration of the party's purpose to sound money and its purpose to maintain it will do the party great good, enthrall the convention and give the man who makes the speech a national reputation. [Louisville Commercial.]

The Sound Money Party.

The Commercial believes, as Major McKinley said in 1890, that a bill for the free and unlimited coinage of silver in this country would be ruinous, and bring on us disasters greater than we have ever experienced in our business history.

Consequently The Commercial desires and expects that the St. Louis Convention will adopt a platform in which it is explicitly set forth that the Republican party is opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Four-fifths of the Republican delegates to St. Louis are pledged to vote against free silver and for the gold standard. The Commercial would prefer bimetalism, if it is possible, but between a silver standard, which the free silver men are trying to force on us, and a gold standard, it prefers a gold standard.

The history of the Republican party commits it to sound money. The result of Democratic conventions shows that Republicans can gain nothing by pandering to the free silver craze. The Democratic party has gone over to the Populists on that issue, and can outbid the Republicans for the free silver vote. History and policy combine to compel the Republicans to adopt at St. Louis a platform which shall declare in the plainest terms against the free coinage of silver, and in favor of the maintenance of the gold standard.

The Commercial believes that the maintenance of the protective policy is essential to our prosperity, but it believes also that we can prosper better under sound money and free trade than under free silver and protection. Our ideal policy is sound money and protection, and that is what the St. Louis convention will declare for. [Commercial.]

Health and happiness are relative conditions; at any rate, there can be little happiness without health. To give the body its full measure of strength and energy, the blood should be kept pure and vigorous, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Disgraced Democracy.

"Nothing in the world is further from Democracy than Populism," complacently observes a Democratic morning newspaper. Indeed, what about the income tax, which is one of the fundamental "principles" of Populism, and which a Democratic Congress jubilantly voted to inflict upon the American people? How about free silver coinage, which is a sacred article in the Populist creed, and which is supported by every Democratic party in every Democratic State in the Union? Tillman, Altgeld, Vest and Bland are all influential Democratic leaders. Wherein do they differ from the worst demagogues of Populism?

The Democratic party in the South and West today is not only in alliance with the Populists, it is Populistic in its doctrine, leadership and tendencies. It is for dishonest money. It wants the income tax. It regards property rights with jealous hatred when the property owner resides in New York or New England. It is drifting with ominous swiftness toward the gulch of downright anarchy. Unless a marked change takes place very soon, the Presidential election of 1900 is likely to see the intelligent, patriotic and conservative Democrats of the North and East standing shoulder to shoulder with the Republicans in a common fight for the basic rights of property and citizenship.

The respectable element in the Democracy is already heartily disgusted with the mad antics of the Albigels and the Tillmans. It will not remain quiescent much longer it anarchist agitators of this stripe continue to dominate the Democratic party. [Commercial Advertiser.]

No Compromise.

The silver leaders grow afraid of their horses.

They now insist that Mr. Carlisle shall not be censured.

But as they are right Mr. Carlisle is everlastingly wrong and deserves their censure.

Some few silver men are even afraid to whisper "16 to 1" and propose to restore silver to the position it occupied prior to 1873.

Prior to 1873 the mint value of silver was less than its commercial value. To restore it to that position we must make the ratio for free coinage almost 32 to 1.

Now, if the Blackburnites free coinage at the ratio existing prior to 1873, they should say so. To say they wish silver restored to the position it occupied prior to 1873 means a change of ratio.

The Blackburnites have not lacked courage during the past twelve months to say what they wanted, but in the face of victory, they fear a crushing defeat in November, and their courage is oozing out of their finger tips.

This talk about a compromise at Lexington is nonsense. Sound money men ask nothing, expect nothing and will accept nothing.

Just as relentlessly as Blackburn and followers have fought the Democratic administration, Democrats still loyal to their faith intend to fight Blackburn under whatever disguise he may assume.

They have drawn the sword and thrown away the scabbard. [Louisville Post.]

JINGO.

Little Marvin, son of J. T. Brown, met with another sad accident Monday by falling from a mulberry tree, breaking his right arm and crushing the bone in a dreadful manner. He has had his left arm broken and one eye put out heretofore.

Weather Vagaries.

The month of May, 1896, will be remembered for its weather vagaries and remarkable atmospheric disturbances. Southern California had a record-breaking hot wave last week, the mercury at Los Angeles going up to 109 in the shade. A few days before a snow storm of ten days' duration came to an end in one of the towns of Montana.

Decoration Day.

A large crowd gathered at the Alexander Cemetery last Saturday to participate in Decoration exercises. The place is a beautiful one, being situated upon a small hill. The Mt. Hermon singing class, led by Prot. J. H. Ellis was on hand and furnished sweet music for the occasion. Rev. J. A. Bennett opened the exercises with prayer. Mr. C. H. Ellis delivered the address of welcome in a true patriotic manner. Mr. Ellis address has been complimented by all who heard him. Response was made by the Post Commander, J. C. Chamberlain.

After singing by the choir the graves were decorated with beautiful flowers, after which dinner was spread for the vast crowd. After dinner there were several good speeches, and a general rally among the old soldiers, and after spending a pleasant day at Alexander the crowd dispersed.

Up-to-Date Watches.

The little watch that the well-dressed woman wears this spring is solely for ornament. She does not even attempt to tell the time by it, and as no ornament it is more costly and splendid than ever before. The latest Paris mode is, when calling and walking, to fit a broad monkey-skin collar round one's Boston terrier or narrow caniche, and slip a large, white-faced watch into a slot in the collar, at the back of the neck. Then by holding the dog in leash, a glance at his collar suffices to indicate the exact flight of time. As for the dog's mistress, if she can afford it she wears one of the very new and very expensive phantom watches pinned high on her left shoulder. This is a circle of jewels about as large as a dollar, set in an invisible rim of gold. The jewels are twelve in number and all of a different color. Two little gold prongs spring out from the rim and hold, exactly in the centre of the circle, a high pink pearl. A short distance the gold prongs are not seen, and the pearl seems suspended in the open circle by some magic means. Inside the pearl are all the works, and on close observation two hair-like gold hands can be seen revolving along the inside edge of the jeweled circle. A splendid emerald indicates one o'clock; a topaz, two o'clock, a diamond, twelve o'clock; a ruby, six o'clock; and so the shining hours go. [From "Society Fads," in Democrat's Magazine for June.]

MAGAN.

Since the rains have set in the farmers have mostly finished setting tobacco. Corn is looking well on hill land, but too much water on the low land has turned the corn yellow.

Mrs. Kate Baughn, of Magan, is low with an affliction of the spine.

Mrs. Kate Luelley is on the sick list this week.

Kentucky Press Association.

Arrangements for the Kentucky Press Convention at Georgetown June 24 and 25 are being made in good style and the Programme Committee has made pleasing progress in providing a list of speakers for the banquet and afternoon session "for the good of the order." Several editors are so busy solving the financial problem that they have been compelled to decline or failed to answer the request of the Programme Committee that they orate for the benefit of their editorial brethren and the good people of Georgetown, says the Louisville Times, but up to date the following have signified a willingness to do their part, and later they will be assigned to speak at the afternoon session or banquet. This is the list up to date:

George F. Long, Russellville Herald, topic to be selected.

George S. Lee, Carrollton News, "Law."

J. B. Stears, Jessamine Journal, "Where Does the good Editor go?"

Harry Giovannoli, Danville Advocate, "The City Editor in a Country Town."

Henry E. Woolfork, Chairman Executive Committee, subject to be chosen.

Lo R. Williams, Midway Clipper, topic to be chosen.

Charles Dadds, Louisville Times, "How to Run a Newspaper."

M. E. Stanley, Big Sandy News, "Our Country Correspondents."

W. T. Adams, Winchester Sun, "Random Remarks."

All these speeches will be limited to ten minutes, and some of the speakers will probably be able to tell what they know in less time. The ideal of the committee has been to provide short, crisp papers from the younger element, and the plan promises to be of greatest success. The decision of the Executive Committee to take the trip to Cumberland Island, Ga., has met with general favor and the convention this year promises to be one of the most enjoyable in years.

Gloom

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives renewed life and vitality to the blood, and through that imparts nerve strength to the whole body. Read this letter:

"Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, changed sickness to health, gloom to sunshine. No pen can describe what I suffered. I was deathly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clapping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." Mrs. J. E. SMITH, Beloit, Iowa.

No More Trouble With Catarrh.

"I was afflicted with catarrh in my head and could not breathe through one of my nostrils for several years. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and the catarrh has been cured, and it does not trouble me at all now." JOSEPH E. CHAPPELL, Cupio, Ky.

"The Poison of Asps."

The many slanderous stories about about my life and work are too puerile to be worthy of notice. And, if I mistake not, they will prove a boom-erang to those perpetrating them. I expected all this, and more too, before entering upon the anti-liquor campaign, and so am not in the least troubled by such things. I can answer them all to the satisfaction of any reasonable man, and show up their investigators in an unenviable light, but that is not my business at present. I am not going to be drawn off with side issues, but keep myself steadily at the work of getting rid of our liquor interests. I am taking notes, however, and my find it expedient later on to call some people to account for their slanderous utterance. [Owensboro Baptist.]

Minister Declines.

The Democrats of Fayette county selected Rev. Dr. Bolling, the eminent Methodist minister, as a delegate to the State Convention, but that gentleman declined. Writing from Lexington, Dr. Bolling says:

"While appreciating the honor of being selected as a delegate to the Democratic Convention, which meets here on June 3rd, and being in full sympathy with the silver movement, I must decline to serve believing that a minister should not enter politics unless he abandons the ministry which I would not do for any office in the gift of men." W. L. BOLLING.

It can be written to Kistelman Bros., Ridgeville, Ind., they will, as you may request, send a large catalogue telling farmers how to make the best fence on earth at the actual cost of the wire, or tell particulars and prices on the cheapest and most beautiful ornamental lawn fence made, suitable for town or city property.

Fittingly Expressed.

The Louisville Commercial very fittingly expressed the feeling of a great majority of the people with reference to the present administration in the following pertinent words.

"It is true that we have only ten months more of this Democratic administration to pull through, and, if we were as fresh as when we started with it, we might come out with some style left; but we are so dead tired now that we will hardly feel able to win a prize in a cake walk after the journey is ended."

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for Sarsaparilla, would be some, provided I was alive and able to carry anything. Eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me, so that I have had no return of the disease for more than twenty years. Defends McKinley.

The Post, an Independent Democratic paper, of Cincinnati, defends McKinley against some indiscreet and dirty flings of so-called newspapers regard to the next President's financial condition in the following editorial:

"The genuine Ananias are sure to bob up in the heat of the political campaign and give, not even 'Auld Cloutie' his due. Some of these prevaricating gentlemen are just now ridiculing McKinley's confession of poverty, as if it were not true. What ever may be said against the Major's so-called 'robber tariff,' he has not become a millionaire under its influence. For a man to have as few of this world's goods as McKinley has, after a long service in Congress, is presumptive proof of honesty. McKinley is not even a moderately rich man. This cannot be said of all the gentlemen who are trying to enter the Presidential race."

Thursday Owensboro Messenger says: Mr. Estil McHenry, of St. Louis, in a letter to his brother, Mr. L. S. McHenry, of this city, writing of the recent cyclone at St. Louis, says that when the wind came up he was at his tubbing with a party of gentlemen. He heard the wind but paid but little attention, thinking it would soon blow over. Through at the club he started for home and found he had to look it, the cars having stopped running on account of the storm. After walking for two miles or more, he reached his home only to find his beautiful residence, on Mississippi avenue, in ruins and his wife and child in the cellar of a neighbor, where they had taken refuge from the storm's fury. His brothers-in-law, Col. Finney Howe and Mr. Ed Switzer, both of whom are now in Europe, shared an even worse fate than his own, their houses being swept away. His description of the destruction wrought by the winds is tragic in the extreme. He adds that while the Owensboro inhabitants of St. Louis suffered greatly from the loss of property, lives were lost or personal injuries sustained.

The Demmys of Ohio County Have a Lively Time.

Saturday witnessed perhaps the largest Democratic convention that has been in Hartford for many days, and it was the wildest body of men that has been in Hartford for many days. B. D. Ringo was elected chairman and P. L. Felix secretary. Mr. Ringo came out with his stereotypical speech upon taking the chair. He jumped onto Gov. Bradley with both feet and fit straddle of the Republican party with his denunciations of Republican methods. He gave Congress fits for the appropriation by which Ohio county gets $13,000. He talked considerable time, and then appointed the following committee on resolutions, viz: J. E. Penn, A. C. Ellis, J. M. Johnson, J. C. Bennett, S. J. Welles, R. P. Hocker and S. D. Morgan.

As soon as the committee reported the storm set in. The split was caused by the following passage in the resolutions: "We are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard for our currency, and the present unsafe and expensive financial system which we maintain at so great a cost."

After reading that part of the resolutions lively discussions followed. It was evident from the start that the free silver men controlled the convention.

Delegates were selected to the State Convention and the body adjourned after adopting the entire resolutions as presented.

REMEMBER.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie P. Hocker and a little son, of Sutherland, were visiting relatives in this neighborhood last Saturday and Sunday. They are originally Kinderhook people but Mr. Hocker is now a prosperous farmer in Daviess county.

Our young friend, Fon Rogers, Cromwell, was among the multitude that attended Decoration at Alexander last Saturday. Fon was making new acquaintances and renewing old ones. Mr. Rogers is a young man of splendid qualities and has for sometime been identified with the school interest of the county. He made a favorable impression.

Though the election of county officers is sometimes off, there is a considerable sentiment on this side of the creek in favor of Sam G. Rhoads for jailor. Nobody is dissatisfied with John W. Black, but the general expression is for rotation in office. Mr. Rhoads comes from the right part of the county for the Republicans to have a candidate. Besides he has worked and fought when the fight was raging hot.

Decoration Day was observed by the Preston Morton Post at Alexander graveyard. Prayer was led by the Posts Chaplain and our young friend Mr. C. H. Ellis delivered the welcome address, after which the graves of soldiers were decorated. The decoration committee found only four soldiers of the 61-65 war buried here. They were J. C. Barnett, D. L. Barnett, Andrew Barnett and John Ford, all members of Company D, 26th Ky. Infantry. J. C. Barnett and D. L. Barnett were with the regiment in all its engagements and were honorably discharged at the close of the war, and died at home surrounded by their families. John Ford died at Bowling Green and was brought home by Mr. Wood Tinsley. In January 1864 Andrew Barnett received a commission to recruit a company and had come home for that purpose and while there was killed by Quantrell's gang of cut-throats. A bounteous dinner was served at which all were filled to their fullness, after which speeches were made by Rev. J. A. Bennett Prof. Burton, Vine Grove; J. L. Elmore, Wm. Carson, Miss Dora Gibson and Comrade J. M. Rogers. A count showed 43 Federal and 2 Confederate soldiers present.

Miss Zana Barnett, Owensboro, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Miss Laura Render, of Hartford, spent Saturday night and Sunday in this neighborhood, the guest of the family of Mrs. Amanda Barnett.
